THURSDAY EVENING, FEBRY, 17.

A streak of Blue. BY BEN BLOOMER. The times are dull, A perfect lull, There's no discounting that; loaction bores. And business snores And every hing is flat ! But don't despair, Just over there Behold "a streak of blue."

Look out for fup. For soon the sup Will be "no peeping" through ! Gird up the loins,

Fair Hope er jains, And bravely ply the oar; We soon shall see Pros. erity,

As we have done before ! Some gloomy days Will come always, And man is prope to sigh. If everything's. Not green as spring.

And bright as beauty's eye. The sky o'erea-t. Roin follows last, And stodders paddle by : But let it pass, thow are nothe grass!

How beautiful the sky And so 'swill be For you and me. If stendily we gaze, With hopeful eye To "by and by"-Sweet blessom of the days.

MEDIAINAL.

GOOD REASONS FOR THE DOCTOR'S

MONROE Gs. March 13 1880. We have for twelve months been prescribing ("Swif's Syphilitic Specific") in the treatment of Syphilis and many other diseases for which it is recommended, and the results have been most satisfactory, not having been disappointed in a single instance. We think, for all diseases it is recommended to cure it stands without a peer, and that all the medical profession, will sooner or later, be forced to reknowledge it in the treatment of samplifies as given assessment. the treatment of spyhilis as a sine qua non.

-1881--

The ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE, begun in 1799, is the oldest newspaper in the State, and the only daily published in Northern Virginia. It has survived, with few exceptions, all the public presses in America which saw with it the dawn of the nincteenth century. It lives, too not in decay, but full of life and vigor, giving all the news, tolling the truth without fear, favor or affection, trenching on the privacy of no man's home, but full to the brim with all public information, and giving daily honest judgments of public men and public measures.

It furnishes the news telegrams of the New York Associated Press and of Reuter's European agency, being, with but three exceptions, the only paper between Baltimore and Richmond that is thus connected with the great fountains of the

With the coming year all the long tried and improved methods of making a standard newspaper will be continued, with such additional facilities as past experience justifies the proprietor in believing will add to the capacity of the Gazette to serve its readers. It expects to render faithful service to the city, the state and the country by a candid criticism of men and events in the interest of the people of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

To meet all the demands upon it, the Gazette will be made a WASHINGTON and RICH. MOND NEWSPAPER, as well as an ALEX. ANDRIA JOURNAL. The Eichmond and Washington news of past years has left little to improve, but yet greater effort will be made to insure absolute perfection in these departments,

The city of Alexandria will find as usual its daily history in each evening's issue, and the intelligence of that section of the Commonwealth which nature has bound to Alexandria by the curvature of its mountains or the courses of its rivers as well as that portion linked to us by the iron bands of railways, will be assiduously

The Business and Commercial columns of the Gazette will be filled with the carliest and most exact commercial news, edited with such painstaking care as will reader an error, where even slight errors are dangerous, impossible.

The Cattle Markets of all the leading points of the world whose rates affect this market will be quoted, and regular statements of the Baltimore, Georgetown, Washington and Alexandria sales of cattle will appear.

The Flour, Grain and Produce movements will be noted daily, and the sales of the Alexandris and neighboring markets given with accuracy and dispatch. The Grocery and other markets will receive constant attention, and the money or stock markets of the country epitomized for its columns, full details being given to all stocks, &c , which find investors in this section of the country.

The advertising columns of the Gazette offer inducements which experience has shown to afford greater returns for a small investment than any other which can be made.
